WEDDINGS.

Murphy-McNamara.
In St. Patrick's church Monday morning at 6:30 o'clock, Ignatius J. Murphy of Sandwich, Mass., and Miss Sarah Marguerite McNamara of this city were united in marriage by the Rev. Hugh Treanor. Harry T. Murphy, a brother of the groom, officiated as best man, and Miss Della Winifred McNamara, a sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid.

The bride was handsomely attired in a tulle and lace gown, with a white lace hat. The bridesmaid also wore a tulle and lace gown, with a white lace hat. The groom wore a tulle and lace suit, with a white lace hat. The wedding was a very quiet affair.

Following the ceremony at the church a breakfast was served at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Harriman, at No. 314 East Main street. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Harriman. There were present a large number of relatives and friends of the young couple, including several from Boston, Hartford and Jewett City. A number of handsomely decorated gifts were received and during the wedding feast followed the breakfast congratulations and best wishes were received by Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and their guests.

The 9:25 train for a brief wedding tour, at the conclusion of which they will take up their residence in Sandwich, Mass., where the groom is engaged in the contracting and road-building business.

Both young people are well known in this community, as a large part of their earlier years was spent in Greenville. They begin their married life with the brightest prospects and are followed by the warmest good wishes of their many friends in this place.

In the evening seven young men and women will contest for prizes. Wednesday afternoon the corresponding secretary and treasurer will give their reports, and the president will read her annual address. In the evening Rev. C. H. Mead, D. D., of New York will speak. This convention bids fair to be very interesting.

Colchester Democrats Nominate.

Colchester, Oct. 17 (Special).—The democratic voters of the town of Colchester met at Grange hall tonight for the purpose of nominating candidates for representatives, judge of probate, and justices of the peace. The caucus was largely attended, there being nearly a hundred present, and the session was harmonious throughout.

Charles A. Kramer was chairman of the meeting and John F. O'Connell acted as clerk.

For representatives to the general assembly Timothy Kelly and Guy B. Clark were nominated without a contest. Charles E. Brown was named for judge of probate, and the following were placed in nomination for justices of the peace: Charles F. Brown, Benjamin J. Mintz, James T. Sherlock, George Kramer, Carlton Skinner, Festus J. Shalor.

Preston Democrats Nominate.

The democrats of the town of Preston have agreed upon Walter McElmoun and Leonard E. Hill as their nominees for representatives to the next general assembly. The following have been nominated for justices of the peace: Theodore Nicolai, James Henry Fitch, Appleton Main, Thomas McElmoun, Jr., and Frederick C. Benjamin.

The republican nominees for justices of the peace are Luther K. Zabriske, George V. Sheld and Charles C. Harkness.

Organizer Elderly Here.

Organizer J. H. Elderly of the Fraternal Benefit league was here from New Haven on Monday, calling upon President E. H. Pinous of Norwich council, No. 25. He looked over the field and conferred with President Pinous as to the prospects of gaining new members for the council, promising to be here next Monday evening, when Norwich council expects to have a special social evening and entertainment. He will also bring with him Supreme President Tyler from New Haven.

GOODWIN-LIPPITT CLUB MEETING

Enthusiastic Gathering at Buckingham Memorial with Several Addresses—171 New Members Received—Candidate Goodwin Coming.

An enthusiastic gathering of the members of the Goodwin-Lippitt club was held on Monday evening in the Buckingham Memorial, at which there were in attendance about 171 members of the club. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Albert B. Bailey, who stated that there could be no greater honor than to be chosen as the head of such a noble organization. He stated that he had written to Charles Goodwin, candidate for governor, stating that the club had been organized to assure him the republican votes of the city and vicinity.

The report of Secretary James L. Case was read, as was the list of new members, numbering 171, making a grand total of 263. The new ones were voted in.

Vice Presidents Selected.
The selection of the vice presidents for the five districts, P. W. Cary having been elected as vice president for the first district, was then taken up. Upon nomination of Col. W. M. Gale, Vincent Stetson was named for the second district and elected. For the third, V. S. Stetson named Charles W. Pearson and he was elected. In the fourth, W. O. Rogers was chosen on the nomination of P. W. Cary and in the fifth L. R. Church named J. D. Allen, who was elected, as was James W. Baskin in the sixth on Tyler Crutenden's nomination.

Judge Ayling Speaks.
As the first speaker of the evening Judge Nelson J. Ayling was presented and he received a warm applause. He said he considered that any little argument would be required by such a gathering to enable them to vote republican. He stated that the organization is intended as the working body of the republicans.

From what he could learn, he said, that the situation of the state today hereabouts than there was four weeks ago, and the situation is improving every day. What is most important is to get together at home. Norwich has been torn asunder by the party spirit, and the republicans are now commencing to work together. Any man should be ashamed of himself to turn traitor to his party.

Referring to the office of judge of probate, he stated that he had always kept it free from politics, and has made it a point that it should have no part in its operation. What is done outside matters not. A man who is intelligent and out of politics ought to exercise his privilege as a matter of privilege and after examining a party which has only one promise, it seems as though its records would decide the action of the people. What he has in mind is to get the office when they cannot do anything, while the sending of good work right into the hands of the people.

GROSVENOR ELY, President.
Important is to get together at home. Norwich has been torn asunder by the party spirit, and the republicans are now commencing to work together. Any man should be ashamed of himself to turn traitor to his party.

Referring to the office of judge of probate, he stated that he had always kept it free from politics, and has made it a point that it should have no part in its operation. What is done outside matters not. A man who is intelligent and out of politics ought to exercise his privilege as a matter of privilege and after examining a party which has only one promise, it seems as though its records would decide the action of the people. What he has in mind is to get the office when they cannot do anything, while the sending of good work right into the hands of the people.

Costello Lippitt Speaks.
Upon taking the platform Costello Lippitt was very loudly applauded. He said the republican party has nothing to apologize for. The republicans have made the country what it is. It has fulfilled its promises and has kept its word. It is a party which has only one promise, it seems as though its records would decide the action of the people. What he has in mind is to get the office when they cannot do anything, while the sending of good work right into the hands of the people.

Albert B. Bailey Heard.
Albert B. Bailey, candidate for representative, was next heard and he thanked the republicans for the honor of being made a candidate for reelection. He stated that if elected he would be his constant aim and ambition to represent the town in such a way that they will have no cause to regret. Every man who gets to work and keep at it until it is seen that the entire ticket is elected. We have a ticket this year which we need not be ashamed of and it contains the name of one of Norwich's most honored sons, Costello Lippitt. (Applause.)

For the office of governor Mr. Goodwin is admirably fitted as he has had just the right experience. A vote for Goodwin is for progression and one for his opponent means retrogression. If all will get together and work we need have no fear as to the outcome, and he believes that the ticket will go in by a large majority.

Costello Lippitt Speaks.
Upon taking the platform Costello Lippitt was very loudly applauded. He said the republican party has nothing to apologize for. The republicans have made the country what it is. It has fulfilled its promises and has kept its word. It is a party which has only one promise, it seems as though its records would decide the action of the people. What he has in mind is to get the office when they cannot do anything, while the sending of good work right into the hands of the people.

President Taft declared has done much in the way of progress. The nation of unpopularity has been the account of talk, but if we realize we are having the best of times the trouble is only the lack of faith and confidence. We have at the head of our ticket a man who has the confidence and the good things again. The trouble is that we have not the confidence in our own party. The thing for us today is to forget the past, the disagreements, and get together. We have at the head of our ticket a man who has the confidence and the good things again. The trouble is that we have not the confidence in our own party.

Explanation of the Ballot.
George H. Stanton was called upon to give an explanation of the new ballot, which he did, and answered a number of questions regarding it. He stated that the ballot was designed to be used in the election of the new members each at the next meeting.

Rally Next Week.
Frederick W. Cary stated that plans are being completed for a rally next week Wednesday evening, when it is expected to have all the state candidates here. Mr. Goodwin expects to be here every district by auto and make a short address and during that time there will be speeches at the rally. Before it closes he will arrive and address the central meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 9:45, to meet again next Monday evening. The following are the new members voted in:
D. C. Allen, John J. Alton, Ludwig Anderson, Arthur J. Andrews, H. C. Baskin, John Baskin, Allen, Charles T. Alexander, C. G. Ambler, Amos A. Browning, F. E. Beckwith, R. S. SIGNALS OF DISTRESS

Norwich People Should Know How To Read and Heed Them.

Sick kidneys give many signals of distress. The secretions are dark, contain a sediment. Passages are frequent, scanty, painful. Backache is constant day and night. Headaches and dizzy spells are frequent. The weakened kidneys need quick help.

Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache and urinary disorders. Norwich evidence proves this statement.

Mrs. H. A. Simonds, 117 Franklin Street, Norwich, Conn., says: "For kidney trouble I think there is no medicine equal to Doan's Kidney Pills. The undoubted benefit they have brought to my friends warrants me in recommending them highly. I shall cheerfully give the facts that lead me to testify in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, to anyone desirous of knowing them for his or her own good."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A Generous and Charitable Wish.
"I wish all might know of the benefit I received from Foley's Kidney Remedy," says J. N. D. Sevin, Esq., Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much pain, misery and annoyance he could not work nor sleep. He says Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured him. Lee & Osgood Co.
